

Be The Noodle:
50 Ways to Be a Compassionate, Courageous, Crazy-Good Caregiver

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction: Caregivers need an adventure guide

I. Wham! Bam! Welcome to the caregiver club ma'am

1. Swimming too far out
2. Advocating for martinis
3. Private Benjamin reporting for duty
4. Enough with the banana bread
5. Did you hear about Boo Boo's mother-in-law's next-door neighbor's cousin?
6. Tea but no sympathy
7. Frustration! 10 things the doctors won't tell you
8. Your valet is here to serve you
9. I want to hold your hand
10. She's got the power
11. The joy of cards and notes
12. Denial is a bad ass energy vampire
13. Which house will they buy? Jell-O brain knows
14. Photo distractions
15. Thelma and Louise hit the road, again
16. The caregiver soundtrack
17. Just being there
18. There will be angry words
19. Do you hear the peepers?
20. Small escapes with Emma and Dustin
21. What's your Paul Newman solution?
22. Managing visits: time's up sister
23. Dying to help: Assign people what they're good at
24. Five things that really piss off t caregivers
25. Sick humor

II. Conflict and crisis: when the wild, wicked and weird start hitting the fan

26. Respecting otherworldly signs
27. Foul moods
28. Wise woman worriers go bananas
29. Hesitating on hosp-ice
30. Nein on 911
31. Scared shitless and finding grace
32. Don't forget your kids
33. RRRTEO: the last word
34. Big 'C' and little 'c' courage
35. Share everything
36. Doubt is a devil
37. More thankfulness, less hope
38. Bodily malfunctions and other shit
39. Morphine and moral dilemmas
40. Grab the furlough
41. Hurry up and die
42. Tend to the details

III. Being laid off: saying good-bye to the hardest job you never wanted

43. Mother told us they'd be days like this
44. Dew vs. fog, sadness vs. grief
45. Be nice to the parrots
46. 10 tips for writing a killer eulogy
47. Writing down your grief
48. Instructions for the orphans
49. Ashes to ashes, dust to joy
50. Those competitive Kennedy's